Civic Voice

Report of the Trustees for the year ended 30 April 2020

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 April 2020. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Civic Voice is the national charity for the civic movement in England. We have 228 members who work to make the places where everyone lives more attractive, enjoyable and distinctive and promote civic pride. We campaign nationally and support civic societies and other community and voluntary groups to be more successful locally. We believe everyone has the right to live somewhere they can be proud of.

Our charitable objects are to:

- Promote the conservation, protection and improvement of the environment, in particular the public realm and the historic environment
- Encourage high standards in the management and development of the built and natural environment
- Promote sustainable development by the conservation, protection and improvement of the environment, and the promotion of the prudent use of resources (sustainable development being development that meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs)
- Foster civic pride and stimulate and educate the public, in particular by promoting understanding of the beauty, history, geography and character of different localities
- Develop the capacity and skills of individuals and communities to understand and take action to conserve, protect and improve the quality, beauty and character of their locality
- Promote such other charitable purposes as may from time to time be determined by the Trustees, including the assistance of other charities.

Public benefit

The civic movement is based on a network of hundreds of local voluntary civic and amenity societies in the warp and weft of communities across England. It is one of the largest social movements in the country. The first civic society was set up in the 1840s.

Civic societies provide a focus for voluntary and community action to improve the places where people live, work and relax. They champion the importance of these places to decision makers and opinion formers in business, politics, government, the media, the voluntary sector and elsewhere. They play an essential and voluntary role in helping individuals and communities to understand and take action to improve the quality of their life through the place where they live. Civic societies promote and celebrate the best of what is inherited from the past and what is developed for the future. They are a fundamental source of civic pride. This work brings benefits to the whole community and not just to those who are members of civic societies.

Civic societies are the country's most numerous participants in the land use planning system and civic society volunteers frequently act as trusted intermediaries between local government and local people in planning, transport and other decision making. Many civic societies campaign for better management of local assets (buildings and open space) and find solutions to their long term management. Civic societies are fiercely independent and grassroots organisations. They will celebrate and encourage positive action and be forthright in resisting damaging change. They are also a store of knowledge and expertise about local places which is an essential starting point in recognising and strengthening their identity. This is often reflected in blue plaque schemes run by civic societies or the development of town trails or management of local archives

The civic movement is also central to supporting and developing the sense of identity and belonging that comes from positive feelings about the place where people live.

STRATEGIC REPORT

Achievement and performance

Achievements

The current Civic Voice strategic plan agreed in 2017 has been broadly seen as valid and has helped to stabilise the organisation. To ensure that any future strategy aligns with our members, the Civic Voice team have held an extensive 'conversation' with our members throughout the past 12 months. This has involved meetings, workshops and surveys. This process gives us the confidence that our future strategy, to launch on 1 May 2020 will enable us to continue to show national leadership for the civic movement.

We will continue to provide the civic movement with a strong and an influential national voice. We know though, that being a national voice is only important, if we represent a relevant movement, engaging in issues that are impacting wider society.

Making the case for the importance of conservation areas, high quality housing, future of our high street and community involvement at all stages of the planning system will be central to our work for the period of our new strategy.

The new strategy will be called 'Civic Societies at the heart of their community', reflecting our ambition to ensure that all civic societies are relevant to the communities they are based in. We know that this will be a challenge for some civic societies, but we also know, that the best civic societies work when they are speaking for all their community, and not just the few.

Members have been supportive of the direction of travel and recognised in particular the need to ensure that Civic Voice has adequate funding and other resources (people, skills, expertise, etc) to continue its mission.

- 1 To diversify our short and long term income streams to ensure long term financial viability within a three-year time frame.
- 2 Increasing resilience: To build and secure the resilience of resources (staff, systems, processes, membership, volunteers) with a focus on core functions and the civic movement to support delivery of our longer-term mission.
- 3 Using our voice: Cement the relationship with the APPG for Civic Societies to positively influence new government actions in at least two significant government actions that affect our mission.
- 4 National mandate: Demonstrate through increased civic society member and increasing individual supporters that Civic Voice is the authoritative representation of the civic movement.

During the year, we created a working group to look at our future strategy. This involved 20 members coming together in Birmingham to independently challenge Civic Voice's thinking. It concluded with a report. The report contained some 14 recommendations based on the discussions.

In summary, feedback from the review stated that the Civic Voice Board can take comfort from the fact that those attending the Awayday were supportive of the current strategy and direction of travel and there is recognition that to do more, Civic Voice will need to find additional sources of income or other resources. However, a number of other issues also emerged, some, no doubt of which the Board is already aware such as the need to improve communications from Civic Voice to individual members of the movement by reaching beyond civic society committees who might not be passing on information about Civic Voice activities to their wider membership.

Civic Voice was set up to be the voice of the civic movement and there was a hope (and even an expectation) that civic societies would meet the bulk of the cost of running the organisation. Our civic society members pay a fee based on the size of their membership. Civic Voice seeks to raise core funds through membership to guarantee independence. We also receive funding from other members and donors, Historic England, MHCLG and through a variety of project work and corporate partnerships. In practice, Civic Voice has not been able to secure sufficient funding from the movement alone to cover its costs with only around one third of the actual income requirement being met by membership subscriptions. With around a 70% of active civic societies taking out membership of Civic Voice at present, and that on the tenth anniversary of Civic Voice, it should in theory be possible for Civic Voice to close the funding gap by recruiting more members. However, given that it has taken ten years to get this far, the aim of recruiting a substantially higher number of societies, while it must remain a long-term goal, offers no quick wins and it will be necessary for Civic Voice to continue seeking external funding for the foreseeable future. We recognised that in setting future priorities, the Board needs to allow capacity and scope for deviation from our committed plan.

Performance

We have continued to strengthen Civic Voice and to be the national leader for the civic society movement.

Influencing Government policy/being heard at a national level:

Civic Voice is a small light footed organisation. As a national voice with a strong local presence we make a difference where it matters and spend time in campaigning in Whitehall and Westminster, campaigning with local volunteers, speaking out in the media, undertaking research, building partnerships and promoting civic pride. We support local groups and help them work together. We organise a national convention for the civic movement and give local groups a national voice. We combine community action with sense of place for the benefit of everyone.

We have built up a credible and creditable reputation in certain circles of government and among other stakeholders for the quality of its work and its reach within the wider community. This was recognised with 'civic societies' being named for the first time ever in government guidance during 2019.

At the Awayday, this work was acknowledged and recognised and there was support for Civic Voice to continue this work. Members report that they value visiting Parliament for Civic Voice events and using it as an opportunity to meet their own MPs. However, this was balanced to some extent by a lack of awareness of exactly what was happening on a daily basis regarding our meetings with MPs and discussions.

It is clear that Trustees and staff know how others perceive Civic Voice and the high regard in which the organisation is held. But does that credit filter through to members? We appreciate that it is a delicate balance between what we can publicly share about our work, and what we have to keep private to help establish a meaningful and honest relationship with civil servants and Ministers.

It is recognised that the recent general election result which gave the government a substantial majority could provide a 5-year period of political stability, albeit one set against a backdrop of considerable change. Nonetheless, that we may now be free of having another general election for quite a long time does mean that organisations such as Civic Voice can develop their relationships with ministers and government officials and have a meaningful dialogue about policy.

The ambition is to re-establish the APPG for Civic Societies and use it as an opportunity to bring Ministers to discuss and debate key issues with Civic Society members.

STRATEGIC REPORT

Financial review

Reserves policy

The trustees have established a policy whereby it is desirable that the unrestricted funds not committed or invested in the fixed assets ("the free reserves") the charity holds should be approximately nine months of the resources expended, At present the free reserves are below the target level.

The funds in the financial statements are defined as:-

General Fund

These funds are unrestricted and are used for all charitable purposes without restriction in accordance with the governing documents. Amounts held in these funds as at 30 April 2020 were £73,357 (2019: £4,639).

Restricted Fund - Local Heritage Lists

Local Heritage Listing is a means for community and a local authority to jointly identify heritage assets that are valued as distinctive elements of the local historic environment. A Local Heritage List identifies those heritage assets that are not protected by statutory national designations but are of local heritage interest, contributing to the sense of place and history of the local area.

A toolkit was developed by Civic Voice in 2017 to support community groups who want to take forward the development of a Local Heritage List, but don't know where to start! The toolkit was funded by Historic England's Heritage Protection Commissions programme, through a grant awarded to Civic Voice. The amount held in this fund as at 30 April 2020 was £34,525 (2019: £29,404).

Risk Review

The trustees continue to address their responsibilities for managing risk by conducting a review of the risks that Civic Voice is exposed to.

The Trustees identified continued threats to Civic Voice and introduced a policy that now states that 'high level risks' exposed to the organisations are discussed at all Civic Voice Trustee meeting. The key risks facing Civic Voice relate to long-term absence to our staff team. Diversifying our income and securing funding on an unrestricted basis, whilst delivering initiatives supported by our membership is a challenge. We will continue to look for funding that helps to strengthen our role as the voice of the civic movement.

For transparency purposes, minutes of meetings are published on the Civic Voice website. Each board meeting includes a discussion on the organisations' risk register.

Future plans

During the year we had intended on celebrating Civic Voice's 10th anniversary with a number of key celebrations, but unfortunately, the COVID-19 crises emerged at the start of the year. This meant that Civic Voice had to cancel a series of events and has been in the situation of not holding a face to face event for over 12 months.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

Civic Voice is a charitable company limited by guarantee, incorporated on 2nd February 2010 and registered as a charity on 23rd February 2010. There is a range of formal and informal routes to shape the priorities of Civic Voice. Members participate in our work, get involved at a national convention and engage in the key issues through meetings of local clusters of societies and by providing information, examples and experience for Civic Voice to use in our lobbying and influence.

Charity constitution

Civic Voice is run by a Board of nine trustees, seven of whom are elected by member civic societies. Up to three others are co-opted. The Board is chaired by Joan Humble and is responsible for the overall strategy and sustainability of the organisation and ensuring effective compliance and risk management. It delegates executive responsibilities to the Executive Director.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Civic Voice

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Civic Voice ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 30 April 2020.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Civic Voice

Notes to the Financial Statements for the year ended 30 April 2020

1. LIMITED BY GUARANTEE

The charity is limited by guarantee. Each member of the charity undertakes that if the charity is wound up while he/she is a member, or within one year after he/she ceases to be a member, he/she will contribute a sum not exceeding £1 to the assets of the charity for:

- payment of the debts and liabilities of the charity contracted before he/she ceases to be a member,
- payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
- adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The presentational currency of the charity is pound sterling (£) and the amounts in the financial statements have been rounded to the nearest £1.

There are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue.

Financial reporting standard 102 - reduced disclosure exemptions

The charitable company has taken advantage of the following disclosure exemptions in preparing these financial statements, as permitted by FRS 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland':

- the requirements of Section 7 Statement of Cash Flows.

Critical accounting judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported. These estimates and judgements are continually reviewed and are based on experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Income

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities when entitlement has passed to the charity; it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the charity and the amount can be reliably measured. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

- Income from donations or grants is recognised when there is evidence of entitlement to the gift, receipt is probable and its amount can be measured reliably,
- Legacy income is recognised when receipt is probable and entitlement is established,
- Income from donated goods is measured at the fair value of the goods unless this is impractical to measure reliably, in which case the value is derived from the cost to the donor or the estimated resale value. Donated facilities and services are recognised in the accounts when received if the value can be reliably measured. No amounts are included for the contribution of general volunteers,
- Income from contracts for the supply of services is recognised with the delivery of the contracted service. This is classified as unrestricted funds unless there is a contractual requirement for it to be spent on a particular purpose and returned if unspent, in which case it may be regarded as restricted.

Expenditure

Expenditure is recognised on an accruals basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes any VAT which cannot be fully recovered and is classified under headings of the Statement of Financial Activities to which it relates:

- Expenditure on raising funds includes the costs of all fundraising activities, events, non-charitable trading activities and the sale of donated goods,
- Expenditure on charitable activities includes all costs incurred by a charity in undertaking activities that further its charitable aims for the benefit of its beneficiaries, including those support costs and costs relating to the governance of the charity apportioned to charitable activities,
- Other expenditure includes all expenditure that is neither related to raising funds for the charity nor part of its expenditure on charitable activities.

All costs are allocated to expenditure categories reflecting the use of the resource. Direct costs attributable to a single activity are allocated directly to that activity. Shared costs are apportioned between the activities they contribute to on a reasonable, justified and consistent basis.

Financial instruments

Financial instruments are classified and accounted for according to the substance of the contractual arrangement as financial assets, financial liabilities or equity instruments. An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the charity after deducting all of its liabilities.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Pension costs and other post-retirement benefits

Contributions to defined contribution plans are recognised as an expense in the period in which the related service is provided. prepaid contributions are recognised as an asset to the extent that the prepayment will lead to a reduction in future payments or a cash refund.

When contributions are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months of the end of the reporting date in which the employees render the related service, the liability is measured on a discounted present value basis. The unwinding of the discount is recognised as an expense in the period in which it arises.

Going concern

The charity has, as noted in the Trustees Report, reviewed reserves policies, ongoing projects and income and expenditure. It is heavily reliant on national and local government funding and other charitable foundations. A new fundraising strategy and new fundraising committee have been implemented, and as a result the going concern basis of accounting has been adopted.
