

Civic Day Award 2011 – Award categories and winners

Smaller groups

Pontefract Civic Society	Award for Improved Public Image - the award recognises the wide range of activities (including a new website) undertaken by Pontefract to improve the public image of the society and raise its profile
Ripon Civic Society	Award for Innovation - the award recognises Ripon Civic Society's innovative approach to a photography competition resulting in high youth involvement
Skipton Civic Trust	Award for Sense of Occasion – the award recognises the wide spread of activities that Skipton Civic Trust undertook during Civic Day to celebrate Skipton Civic Trust's 50 th anniversary
Portsmouth Society	Award for Innovative School Project – the award recognises the spread of activities undertaken by The Portsmouth Society to strengthen relationships with local schools

Larger groups

Blackpool Civic Trust	Award for Mass Participation – the award recognises the fact that Blackpool Civic Trust attracted over 2,000 members of the public to a mass street party
Bristol Civic Society	Award for Involving Young People – the award recognises the success of Bristol Civic Society in appointing two students to manage and deliver a hugely successful Civic Day event
City of Winchester Trust	Award for Partnership Working – the award recognises the partnership between City of Winchester Trust and the Hampshire Chronicle in helping to find Winchester's favourite building, resulting in improved publicity for Civic Day
Formby Civic Society	Award for High Youth Involvement – the award recognises the success Formby Civic Society had in involving over 180 youngsters in the "My Formby" competition
Kings Lynn Civic Society	Award for Innovative Campaigning – the award recognises the vital work done by Kings Lynn Civic Society in campaigning to get action taken on an issue (housing) of local and national importance

Special Award

Malvern Civic Society	A special award which recognises that Malvern Civic Society organised over 100 events as a contribution to national Civic Day
-----------------------	---