7. Alterations to these Articles

- 7.1 No alterations to these Articles may be made which would cause the Charity to cease to be a charity in law. Other alterations to these Articles may only be made by a special resolution at a general meeting or by a written special resolution.

A special resolution will be validly passed at a general meeting if the Charity gives the members at least 14 Clear Days' notice of the intention to pass a special resolution at the meeting, including in that notice the text of the resolution, and it is passed either:

- 7.1.1 on a show of hands by not less than 75 per cent. of the members and duly appointed proxies who (being entitled to do so) vote on the resolution; or

- 7.2 Alterations may only be made to:

7.2.1 the Objects; or

7.2.2 to any clause in these Articles which directs the application of property on dissolution; or

- 11.2 Where the duty of a Trustee to avoid a situation in which he/she has or can have a direct or indirect interest or duty that conflicts or possibly may conflict with the interests of the Charity including a wish or duty to exploit any property, information or opportunity (as specified by section 175(1) of the Companies Act 2006) would otherwise be infringed in relation to a particular situation, transaction or arrangement, the duty is not infringed if the procedure set out below is followed:

- 11.2.1 the matter in relation to which that duty exists has been proposed to the Trustees at a meeting of the Trustees and has been authorised by them; and
- 11.2.2 any requirement as to the quorum of such meeting is met without counting the Trustee in question, or any other interested Trustee, subject to Articles 11.3 and 11.4; and
- 11.2.3 the matter was agreed to without any such Trustee voting, or would have been agreed to if the vote of any such Trustee had not been counted, subject to Articles 11.3 and 11.4.

11.3 In such a conflict of interest situation (including any authorisation of non-disclosure of information), where there are insufficient unconflicted Trustees present at the meeting to constitute a quorum, the unconflicted Trustees present shall be deemed to constitute a quorum for the purposes of authorising the conflict under Article 11.2 and the manner of dealing with the conflict, provided that:

- 11.3.1 they may only give such authorisation where they are satisfied that the conflicted Trustee or Trustees will not receive any direct or indirect benefit other than one permitted by these Articles; and
- 11.3.2 the total number of Trustees at the meeting (whether conflicted or unconflicted) is equal to or higher than the quorum of the Board.

11.4 In the event that all of the Trustees present at the Board meeting are conflicted in respect of a particular conflict of interest situation, the conflicted Trustees present at a meeting may authorise the conflict and the manner of dealing with the conflict and shall constitute a quorum for the purposes of such authorisation, provided that they satisfy the requirements set out in Article 11.3.1 and 11.3.2 above.

11.5 The duty to deal with conflicts referred to in Article 11.2 applies in the case of the exploitation of property, information or opportunity even if the Charity is not taking, or could not take, advantage of the opportunity.

11.6 The Trustees shall observe the other duties and rules in the Act, and such other rules as the Board adopts, as to the management of conflicts of duty or interest and to the extent required by law every Trustee shall fully disclose to the Board the circumstances giving rise to any conflict or potential conflict that he/she has.

11.7 The Board may by resolution passed in the manner set out in this Article, authorise a Trustee not to disclose to the Board confidential information relating to a conflict of interest provided that it may not authorise the withholding of information relating to a direct or indirect personal benefit for the Trustee.

12. Rights of Inspection

- 12.1 A copy of the Memorandum and Articles and any Regulations must be available for inspection by the members of the Charity at the Office or at a single alternative inspection location if applicable. Any member who requests a copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association must be sent a copy.

- 13.1 The number of members of the Charity is unlimited. They remain members until they cease to be members in accordance with these Articles.
- 13.2 The Charity must keep at the Office a register of members showing their name, postal address and dates of becoming a member and ceasing to be a member.
- 13.3 Subject to any restrictions permitted by the Act, the register is available for inspection by the members of the Charity without charge and any other person on payment of a fee prescribed by the Charity, subject to any maximum fee imposed by law. Subject to the Act, where a person seeks to inspect the register, the Charity must within five working days either comply with the request or apply to the Court for permission not to comply with the request.
- 13.4 All members must pay the subscriptions (if any) that the Board decides from time to time. The Board may fix differing rates for subscriptions for different members or categories of members. The Board may base subscription rates on the number of members that a member organisation has.

14. Membership

- 14.1 The subscribers to the Memorandum and such other persons who are admitted to membership in accordance with these Articles shall be the members of the Charity.
- 14.2 Membership is open only to the subscribers and to such Civic Societies, whether incorporated or unincorporated, as the Board decides to admit to membership.
- 14.3 The Trustees may determine criteria for membership but are not obliged to admit any organisation satisfying such criteria as members and may decline in their absolute discretion any organisation's application and need not give reasons for such decision.
- 14.4 A member organisation must, if asked, give a copy of its constitution to the Charity.

14.5 Each member organisation has the right to appoint one representative. At any time by giving notice in Writing to the Charity, that member can cancel the appointment of its representative and appoint another instead. The member must confirm the name of its representative at the Charity's request. The representative has the right to attend vote and speak at general meetings of the Charity and any vote given shall be valid unless prior to the vote the Charity receives written notice ending the representative's authority.

14.6 The Board may delegate the power to admit members.

15. Associate membership

15.1 The Board may establish classes of associate membership with such name and with such rights and obligations (including without limitation the obligation to pay a subscription) as the Board thinks fit, and may admit and remove such associate members in accordance with Regulations made by the Board, provided that an associate member shall not, by virtue of holding that post, be a member of the Charity for the purposes of the Articles or the Act.

16. No transfer of Membership

16.1 None of the rights of any member of the Charity may be transferred or transmitted to any other person.

17. Ending of Membership

17.1 A member stops being a member of the Charity if:

17.1.1 the member resigns from membership by giving notice in Writing to the Charity; or

17.1.2 membership is ended under Article 18; or

17.1.3 the member's subscription (if any) remains unpaid six months after it is due and the Board resolves to end that member's membership; or

17.1.4 the member fails to respond in Writing within 60 days of being sent a notice in Writing requesting confirmation that he/she wishes to remain a member and the Board resolves to end membership. The notice must contain a warning that membership may be ended; or

17.1.5 the board finds that the member's actions have brought or are at risk of bringing the Civic Society movement into disrepute and the Board resolves to end that member's membership; or

17.1.6 the member organisation ceases to function or is wound up.

18. Removal from Membership

18.1 The Board may terminate membership by giving the member notice in Writing.

18.2 No later than 28 days after receiving that notice the member can appeal in Writing to the Charity against the termination. If an appeal is received within the time limit, the termination must be considered by the Board or a committee appointed by the Board. The member has the right to be heard at the meeting or may make written representations. The meeting shall either confirm the termination or reinstate the member.

19. Annual General Meetings

19.1 Subject to Article 19.2, the Charity shall hold an annual general meeting in addition to any other general meeting in every calendar year. The annual general meeting must be specified as such in the notices calling it.

19.2 The first annual general meeting must be held within 18 months of the incorporation of the Charity.

20. Other General Meetings

20.1 All general meetings except annual general meetings are called general meetings.

21. Calling of Other General Meetings

21.1 The Board may call a general meeting whenever they wish. Such a meeting must also be called if members representing at least five per cent. of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at general meetings request it in accordance with the Act.

22. Notice of General Meetings

22.1 An annual general meeting or a general meeting must be called by giving at least 14 Clear Days' notice in Writing including by website in accordance with Article 63.4. These notices must specify the place, date, time and the general nature of any business and, in the case of a special resolution the text of the resolution must be set out in the notice. The notice must also include a statement informing the members of their right to appoint a proxy to exercise all or any of their rights to attend, speak and vote at the meeting. Notice of the meeting must be given to everyone entitled by these Articles to receive it and must be given in accordance with these Articles. A meeting may be held on shorter notice if it is agreed by a majority in number of the members having the right to vote holding not less than 90 per cent. of the total voting rights of the members.

22.2 At an annual general meeting the business usually conducted will be, where necessary, the election of Trustees in place of those retiring, the election of Trustees appointed to fill a vacancy since the last annual general meeting, and where necessary the appointment of auditors and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors. Where the Charity's auditors are deemed reappointed in accordance with the Act, the Trustees shall fix the auditors' remuneration.

23. Members' rights to propose advisory resolutions

23.1 Ten or more members (or such higher or lower number of members as is determined by the Board from time to time) may, acting together, require the Board to add an advisory resolution to the agenda for the annual general meeting provided that they give the Board notice of this requirement in Writing at least 56 Clear Days before the date of the annual general meeting in question. This is subject to Articles 23.2 and 23.4.

23.2 There shall be no right for members to have an advisory resolution put on the agenda of an annual general meeting if, at any of the previous three annual general meetings of the Charity, an advisory resolution or formal resolution was proposed which was the same as or substantially the same as the advisory resolution that the members wish to propose.

23.3 Any advisory resolution that is added to the agenda pursuant to Article 23.1 must be proposed at the annual general meeting, and may be voted on, but an advisory resolution shall not constitute a resolution for the purposes of the Act or these Articles. The outcome of any vote on an advisory resolution shall not be binding on the Board or the Charity, but the Board must give a reasoned response to any subjects so raised.

23.4 This is without prejudice to the Board's right to propose any resolutions that it sees fit at the annual general meeting.

24. Quorum

24.1 Business may be transacted at a general meeting only if a quorum of members is present in person or by proxy when the meeting begins to deal with its business. A quorum is five per cent. of the members.

25. Adjournment if no Quorum

25.1 If the meeting is called by the demand of members, it must be dissolved if, within half an hour after the appointed starting time, a quorum is not present. If called in any other way, the meeting may be adjourned to another day, time and place as the Board may decide. Articles 27.2 and 27.3 shall apply to such an adjourned meeting.

25.2 If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the appointed starting time, the members present will be a quorum.

26. Chair

- 26.1 The Chair (if any) of the Board should normally preside as chair at every general meeting of the Charity. If there is no Chair, or if he/she is not present within 15 minutes after the appointed starting time or is unwilling to take the chair, the Board shall select the chair of the meeting and in default the members at the meeting shall select a chair.

27. Adjournment of the Meeting

- 27.1 The chair of the meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and must if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.
- 27.2 No business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 27.3 When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as for the original meeting. Apart from that, it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting nor of the business to be done at it.

28. Voting on Resolutions

- 28.1 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting is decided by a show of hands by members unless a poll is demanded (before or after the result of the show of hands is declared). On a show of hands every member shall have one vote. A poll may be demanded by the chair of the meeting or a member who is present save that no poll may be demanded on the election of a chair of a meeting or on any question of adjournment. Members may vote by proxy.
- 28.2 Members may appoint a proxy who need not be a member of the Charity. The proxy may be appointed by the member to exercise all or any of the member's rights to attend, speak, vote and demand a poll at a meeting of the Charity.

29. Proxies

- 29.1 An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in Writing executed by or on behalf of the appointer and shall be in any form that the Trustees may approve. If the appointer does not direct the proxy how to vote on a particular resolution, the proxy may vote as he/she or she thinks fit. The instrument of proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated in such instrument of proxy, be valid for any adjournment of the meeting as well as for the meeting to which it relates.
